The Yucaipa Performing Arts Center is excited to present the Latin Legends Live, featuring El Chicano, Malo, Thee Midnitters and Tierra. From Chicano styled covers of popular songs to original songs openly speaking of Chicano movements, these groups trailblazed the way for Chicano music, movements and culture in the 60s and 70s.

El Chicano, formed by Freddie Sanchez in the late '60s, under the name The VIP's arose during a period of increasing Chicano consciousness in America. Their initial hit, "Viva Tirado", was a jazzy soul rock rendition of Gerald Wilson's original song about a bullfighter. The song did very well on Los Angeles radio and remained #1 for thirteen straight weeks.

Malo, formed by Arcelio Garcia, combining some of the Bay Area's best musicians, Malo's 1972 Top 20 hit single, "Suavecito" (meaning "soft" or "smooth" in Spanish), is often referred to as "The Chicano National Anthem".

Thee Midnitters are among the first Chicano rock bands to have a major hit in the United States. They were among the first rock acts to openly sing about Chicano themes in songs such as "Chicano Power" and "The Ballad of César Chávez" in the late 1960s.

Tierra is a Latin band from Los Angeles, CA established in the '70s by former El Chicano members Steve Salas and his brother Rudy Salas. Tierra has the distinction of being the first Latino band to have four songs on the national chart with two of them in the Top 100 at the same time
