The talent behind the well-known songs, "Modern Day Bonnie and Clyde" (recorded by Travis Tritt) and "Relentless" (recorded by Jason Aldean) is coming to Yucaipa. James Leblanc, named by Rolling Stone as one of the "10 New Country Artists You Should Know," will be joined by The Winchesters at the Yucaipa Performing Arts Center Feb. 8 at 8 p.m.

Singer-songwriter James LeBlanc was born and raised in Shreveport, Louisiana. James picked up the guitar at age seven, inspired by his father James Sr. After a rocky first few years, James was discovered by FAME Studios founders Rick and Rodney Hall. Not long after signing a production agreement with FAME, LeBlanc's songs were recorded by the likes of Martina McBride, Bryan White, Rascal Flatts, Kenny Chesney, Thompson Square and more. His songs have been on records which have sold over 25 million copies.

The Winchesters include lead vocalist, Muscle Shoals native, and previous winner of Nashville Star, Angela Hacker; Grammy Award winner, Jimmy Nutt; and talented musicians Brad Kuhn and Evan Lane. Their hit record with James LeBlanc, The Devil Between My Ears, was released in Sept. 2019.
