The Yucaipa Performing Arts Center (YPAC) is excited to present Barry Neal and Debbie Praver, two new Hollywood-based comedians in our Date Night Comedy Series. Neal and Praver will perform their act, “Love and Laughter,” with Ace Guillen hosting on March 19 at 7PM.

Barry Neal’s clean, high-energy style has quickly moved him up the comedy ladder as a notable headliner. He’s made appearances on MTV, NBC, Comedy Central, and VH-1. His “Counselor of Love” act is currently being shopped as a sitcom, which Barry wrote along with Dan Patterson, the creator and executive producer of Whose Line Is It Anyway?

Debbie Praver was a guest performer at the Las Vegas Comedy Festival, shared the stage with Kathy Griffin in Dennis Hensley’s “Screening Party” and performs regularly at The Improv, The Comedy Store, and Friars Club. Debbie honed her writing skills with Desperate Housewives Creator, Marc Cherry, and Desperate Housewives Co-executive Producers, Joey Murphy and John Pardee.

Two new Hollywood comedians will be performing at the YPAC every third Thursday of the month through May 2020. FREE child care is provided for one child (ages 4 – 13) per ticket purchased.
