Note from the Director

Oklahoma! has always been one of those shows that just feels like theatre to me. Big music, big characters, laughter, love, and a group of people trying to figure out where they belong and what comes next. Not to mention one of the shows my brothers and friends would watch all the time.

But what I love most about this show is the idea of community. That is something I believe deeply about theatre. No one does this alone. Every person on that stage matters. Every person backstage matters. Every musician, crew member, volunteer, family member, and person who gives their time to make this happen matters. I have always said that every show is an ensemble piece, and this cast has reminded me why I believe that.

Theatre has been a huge part of my life for many years, and somehow I still get emotional watching everything finally come together. You start with a script, some music, an empty stage, and a group of people. Then little by little, they become a family and create something that will only exist for a short time. This is very special.

My hope is that tonight you laugh, smile, maybe feel something you were not expecting, and leave remembering why live theatre matters.

Thank you to this cast and team for giving so much of yourselves to this show. I am incredibly proud of what we created together. And thank you to all of you for being here and supporting live theatre.

Enjoy Oklahoma!

Jeffrey Ricca* (Curly) is honored to return to the Oklahoma! territory making this musical feel just as rewarding and sentimental. Born and raised in the Inland Empire, he has performed for mutiple resorts, casinos and cruise lines all over the world. National and international tours include: South Pacific, Fiddler on the Roof, Disney's Beauty and the Beast, Jersey Boys and *Cabare*t. Memorable stage credits include: Chicago (Billy Flynn), Evita (Che), The Last Five Years, Jesus Christ Superstar, West Side Story and especially donning the mask of the Phantom of the Opera. Jeff has been paying tribute to Freddie Mercury and the music of Queen entertaining audiences with killer musicians all across the United States and Canada. Glory to God, thanks to Nathan, Steve, this cast and every single patron for supporting the Arts and live entertainment.

Amanda Valdes (Laurey) is delighted to be back on the Legendary Productions stage. A classically trained soprano, Amanda has enjoyed a lifelong love of music and the stage. Her most recent roles include Legendary Productions Cinderella (Fairy Godmother) and Merrily We Roll Along (Gussie) with IVRT. After taking time away from the stage to raise her family, Amanda is especially grateful to be performing again. Offstage, she is a private voice teacher, choir teacher, and cantor, but her most cherished roles are those of wife and mother. She is deeply thankful for her husband and two children, whose love and support make moments like this all the sweeter. With a grateful heart, Amanda gives thanks for the gift of music and the joy of sharing it once again—all for the greater glory of God!

Alfonso Garcia as Jud Fry Alfonso is grateful to return to Legendary Productions and to the YPAC stage. Favorite Legendary credits include The Addams Family (Gomez Addams), Into the Woods (The Baker), Disney's Beauty and the Beast (Gaston), Seussical (The Cat in the Hat), and White Christmas (Bob Wallace). Some of Alfonso's favorite memories have been made on a Legendary stage, and he remains incredibly grateful for every character, cast, and story that has allowed him to call this place home. Much love and thanks to Nathan and Steve for continuing to believe in him.
